Western Australia v Ward (2002) 191 ALR 1

Facts

- A native title claim is put forward for certain areas around Kununurra

Held

- Native title rights can co exist with some other rights, such as pastoral leases
- Native title legislation allows for partial and total extinguishment of native title
- Proof is based in traditional laws and customs, not occupation

Law case summary from www.lawcasesummaries.com